

Northwind Institute Oxford Pilgrimage and Research Advance 2024

June 23–29, 2024

Join us... for an extraordinary educational experience as we study the lives and works of the Oxford Inklings. Journey with a select group of Northwind scholars and pilgrims as we walk in the imaginative footsteps of C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien and the other Inklings.*

Experience
the treasures of medieval Oxford

Research in the famous
Bodleian
Libraries

Learn from experts in Inklings
Studies

Space is limited!

This guided tour is a unique learning opportunity that adds value to the Romantic Theology certificate and degree programs at Northwind Institute/Northwind Seminary.

Space is limited to 12 faculty, students, and friends of Northwind.*

Register Now to Reserve Your Spot!

EVENT DETAILS

Travel and Study in Oxford: The Northwind Institute Program Fee includes academic escort, lectures, discussions, guided walking tours, Research/Reader card access for Bodleian Libraries, entrance to selected museums and exhibits, and public transport.

This multi-sensory, interactive program includes walking tours of historic Oxford, Inklings sites, local pubs, University colleges, and a private group tour of The Kilns and parish church.

Learn from Inklings Scholars: The itinerary features lectures and group discussions with faculty and Inklings scholars such as:

– Owen A. Barfield – Dr. Michael Ward – Dr. Anthony Phelan

Academic Escort:

Dr. Michael J. Christensen (Ph.D., Theology)

- Professor of Theology, Northwind Seminary; Program Director, Romantic Theology
- Author, C. S. Lewis on Scripture
- Contributor, C.S. Lewis Bible and The Heart of Henri Nouwen
- Former Sr. Fellow and Resident Scholar, The Kilns, Oxford

DATES/COSTS

6/23–29/2024 | 7 Days | 6 Nights

Cost Breakdown:

- Program Fee $1000
- Group Housing (approx.) $850

Note: College/Group Housing is arranged by tour leader and invoiced to participants (or you can book your own)

*Discounted for couples in a double bed

- Daily Meals Varies

Note: Breakfast is typically included in housing costs

- International Travel Not included

Note: Arranged by individual participants

- Transport to/from Airport $50

Important Dates:

- December 1, 2023 – Enrollment due (payment required)
- February 1, 2024 – Housing cost due
- June 23, 2024 – Arrive in Oxford